

CCGD Golden Jubilee (Isaiah 62:4)

Christian Community of God's Delight

Robert Schnitzius - March 24, 2023

My beloved people,

When you gave your hearts to Me
Did you think that you would see
This feast, this Golden Jubilee?

Did your worship, prayers, and praise
Sustain your efforts all your days
And set your souls and hearts ablaze?

Did you see your love increase?
Did strife within you wane and cease?
Did you come to know My Peace?

When My Spirit came to you,
Is that the moment when you knew
My Grace and Love indeed were true?

Then you chose My Holy Way
And walked beside Me every day
Together we shared work and play.

You learned My Truth, so you would know
To walk My Way, so you would grow
And live My Life, so you could show

That Winter, Summer, Fall and Spring
I am God and Lord and King
Of everyone and everything.

Together we have battles won
But know that we have just begun
To claim My Kingdom as God's Son.

Let your heart and mind be still.
Give Me you fiat. I will fill
Your lives with My Divine Will

That every act done in My Grace
As you adore My Holy Face
Exalts My Name through time and space.

As we go forth with My Might
Know beloved, that in My sight
You are always My Delight.
